This trail is an easy 1.5 miles out and back, on a section of the former Connecticut Western Railroad. The trail runs alongside the Mad River and Smith Pond, and connects to the Pine Mountain Preserve. Further down the trail, enjoy the view from a stone bench where the Mad River flows under the rail bed. There is limited parking at the Grantville Road entrance, 3.4 miles from Village Green via Route 272 South and Winchester Road.

Hiking, snowshoeing, skiing.
